Course Title: Business Ethics for the 21st Century

Reason for initiating, revising, or canceling:

The overall objective of this course is for each student to develop a critical thinking approach regarding many of the significant ethical concerns confronted by organizational members within the contemporary business world. The extent to which firms are responsible to society concerning such critical issues as the environment will be explored in depth. This course is required for students enrolled in the Bachelors of Science in Business Management. This course would be a good elective for any student having achieved junior level status wanting a better understanding of the manager's social and environmental responsibilities to key stakeholder groups.
