Important Notice:

Students who declare one or more emphases will receive one diploma upon graduation. The name of the degree program will appear on the diploma and the emphases earned will be listed on the graduate's transcript. Students may not add an additional emphasis once the degree is conferred. After the degree is conferred, students cannot return to earn another emphasis in that degree. However, students are welcome to return and take classes required for that emphasis to enhance their resume for employment purposes.

Common Career Pathway:

Students can occupy different roles at all levels in many organizations, including schools, hospitals, mental-health clinics, senior centers, elected office, private practice, military, corporations, and in numerous public and private agencies that serve individuals and families in need.
